LIBERAL TO THE INSURED. The uniform course of the Company has always been a liberal one towards Policy Holders. No just claim has ever been disputed, and prompt payment of losses is a standing rule. During the past year, losses exceeding $525,000 were paid. Losses paid as soon as the amount is ascertained. ANNUAL INCOME.

The Income of the Company is now about $1,-000,000, increasing gradually each year, showing that it has the confidence of the different communities in which business is done. RATE OF PREMIUM.

The Rate of Premium will be moderate, and in all cases will be based upon the character of the owner or occupant, and the merits of the risk. The conditions of Insurance are framed with the greatest liberality.

This is the advantage resulting from the combination of the

CASH AND MUTUAL PRINCIPLE. This Company commenced issuing Policies against loss or damage by fire, on the 13th day of March, 1854, since which time over seven thousand seven hundred persons have insured and become members of the Company, and over seventy thousand dollars have been paid for losses. Having increased our business during the past year, we feel grateful for the liberal patronage bestowed upon the Company thus far, and for its flattering prospects of future usefulness. The Directors hope and believe, that, by prudence, caution, and a rigid system of economy, they will establish for this Company a reputation for cheapness and safety not surpassed by any Company in the U. States. All differences in settlement of losses, may be determined by three disinterested arbitrators of the County where such loss happened, to be mutually chosen by the insured and the Company.

MISCELLANEOUS READING. COMMUNICATED.

MY OLD HAT.

There is no use in winks and jeers, And railing, and all that; It only makes me prize the more, My much-abused Old Hat. There was a time perhaps when I

Might felt a little flat; Thus to appear 'mong ladies fair, With so uncouth a Hat. But good long years have run between

The present time and that; And I've but little care about The fashion of my Hat. Now this has been as true a friend

As ever by me sat; This same old tattered slouch of mine-This much-denounced Old Hat.

Faithful in sunshine and in storm-Jams, squeezes-and all that; It would be quite ungrateful to Forsake so good a Hat. And what to me is shining 'silk,'

Or 'beaver' fine, or cat?" My head, I ween, would be as grey In any other Hat. It hath, indeed, seen better days-And many a one says that;

When tortune wanes, or beauty fades, And so may my Old Hat. 'Twas once a trim and graceful thing As ever one looked at:

And won good praise from all around-This same old dingy Hat. But hardships thickened 'long it's path-Kicks, peltings, and all that;

The greater marvel is to me, 'Tis now a living Hat. Hard battles hath it fought, and well, With Butterfly and Bat;

For every boy about the house Has claimed it for his Hat. And it hath slept full many a night Out on the old straw mat-

No wonder 'tis so shabby now-So little like a Hat! And yet I'm loth to give it up,

No matter for all that; It has more comfort still for me Than any other Hat. And comfort's what we're seeking here, 'Mid Life's rough tit-for-tat; Then why for style or fashion's sake,

Discard the dear Old Hat?

Fashion's a nondescript at best, And style is often flat; And many a pate as green as mine, Dons quite a stylish Hat. "The World's deceived with ornament." The saying has grown pat-

But witchery lives in bonnets fine, It may live in a Hat! Heads oft are turned and hearts are warped By conic crowns and flat-But no such dangerous spirit lurks About this holy Hat.

And yet my 'better-half' will chide, Scold, threaten, and all that; Because I will not cast away My innocent Old Hat! Her words have quite a 'melting flow,

Yet surely as to that; I must maintain my right of choice, And taste about my Hat. She trims her bonnet red or blue, I've nought to say to that;

Yet, standing on my rights reserved,

I hold on to my Hat! June 21. EXTRACT OF LETTER FROM "JOB SASS," TO THE BOSTON HERALD .- 'i found the folks at the Humstead awl well, & apparently in gude sperrits tu see Me back agin. i say apparently, bekause woman is so univarsally deceitful i Kudn't raly tell wether debora
